About Phase 3

Phase 3 are independent and whole-of-market specialists in the application of people technologies, providing Consulting, Services and industry Insights to UK-based customer organisations, partner product suppliers and to the professional community.

We apply our expertise to help our customers choose, implement, develop and understand their preferred technology for HR, payroll and business intelligence and to develop increasing organisational capabilities with people technology.

Our belief is that it is the people behind the technology that is the greatest enabler to success, which means that the core Phase 3 values are those of talent, objectivity, credibility and knowledge-sharing.

Well-established and proven over a 17-year history, the company is based in Manchester. Phase 3 Consultants work nationwide and as a close team, valuing one another's individual expertise so that it is compounded for those we advise. Day-to-day Phase 3 are delivering systems selection and implementation projects and long-term bite-sized consultancy, running managed services and delivering training and events.

"The Phase 3 service is professional and knowledgeable; the consultants are supportive and have good payroll experience which translates into comprehensive system build and payroll running."

Kim Koster, East Kent Human Resources

Phase 3 do payroll

Payroll is often the largest expense to any organisation, and the highest risk for compliance and financial burden. Our experts have to be experts. Our Pay Spheres ensure we cover the end to end processes but also those additional items which often cause you trouble. Our payroll services are delivered by experts not administrators.

Our Payroll Service is available in 3 levels:

1

LEVEL ONE

Month End Pay Sphere

For those clients who have in-house payroll teams who would like the assurance that month end processes are entirely accurate, audited and compliant.

2

LEVEL ONE

Payroll Input Sphere

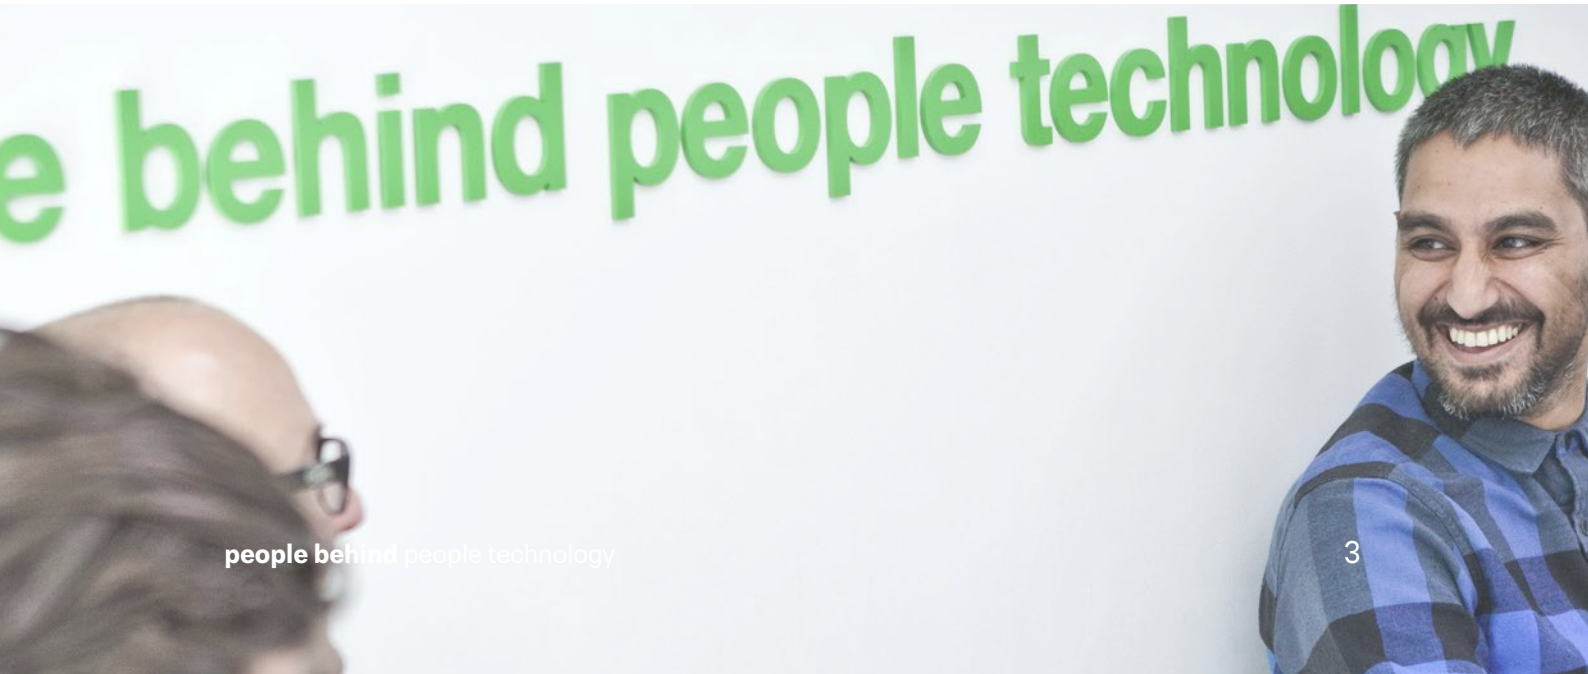

For those clients who don't have the time or the team to complete payroll input.

Intergrating our services

The payroll services are delivered by a team of expert consultants not administrators. You will be assigned a named consultant (who is part of a larger team) who will be responsible for your day to day operations. Should you require any developmental consultancy this can be delivered by the same team either through Bite-sized or with our integrated on site team. This ensures a continuity of personnel and a thorough understanding of you, our client.

Our prices are based on the number of employees and payrolls, this is a fixed price with no hidden costs. Each menu can be tailored to meet your needs ensuring a service which is relevant and responsive.
